STEVENSON'S ARREST.

The statements of the Tribune concerning the arrest of Mr. Stevenson are utterly untrue.

Mr. Stevenson was not under arrest for a moment in Reno, until he voluntarily gave himself up to the Sheriff of that county. He was in California on business and upon learning of the matter telegraphed to Sheriff Coughlan that he would be in Reno as soon as possible. He kept his word and hunted up the Sheriff.

Mr. Stevenson has been unjustly arrested, and has no fear for the result of the trial. This attempt to "get even" may sink its originator still deeper in the mire. Several business men of Reno volunteered to Sheriff Coughlan to act as bondsmen to any amount. In this town there was no difficulty in securing the names of J. Klien and C. H. Peters to his bond which was fixed at $1,000. There was no indictment found against Mr. Stevenson. There was no evidence which would justify such action.

A presentiment was made by the Grand Jury, for offering to bribe an officer, meaning one of our County Commissioners but when the proper time arrives, not only the motive for such an act but its utter absurdity will be fully brought out.

The attempt to so utterly humiliate a person by unwarranted arrest that he may never rise against Ormsby's boodle ring, is so apparent in this case that it needs no comments.

CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

It is quite a significant fact that Secretary Foster ordered sixty millions of gold to be removed from San Francisco to the east almost simultaneously with his taking the stump for Harrison. The Silver State figures out the situation in this manner:

The gold bug papers in San Francisco, guessed this sudden move was made for fear that in case of war with a foreign power such as Chili, the city might be bombarded and the money captured. What innocent creatures—they seemingly did not drop on the fact that the Treasury department is in the habit of depositing millions of dollars with certain favorite, loyal national banks, without interest, for them to loan out to the people at 6 per cent or more per annum. Sixty millions and more are required to harvest and remove the grain and cotton crops. The interest on the San Francisco haul will amount to $3,600,000 for one year. The Wall street banks can well afford to contribute to Harrison's election, two millions of dollars and make the smart little sum of one million and six hundred thousand on the deal. There are no flies on Foster.

The Harrison organs in Nevada are in ecstasies over the election of Jones (Democrat) Governor of Alabama, notwithstanding the People's party has reduced the majority of 97,000 of two years ago to about 5,000. We don't hear these slimy gold-bug sheets crying out fraud, shotguns, and throwing out of votes, for the Republican vote of that State was religiously counted, as it was cast for the gold-bug Democratic party.—Silver State.

Mr. C. J. Kappler, Senator Stewart's private Secretary informs us that the most indispensable and best informed man in the document department at Washington is named Smith. We used to know a man in New Jersey by that name and would like very much to find out if the Washington man is the same one. The name was odd but we are quite sure it was Smith. Perhaps Mr. Kappler can drop into the office some day and tell us his given name.

The signal service flag still hangs out for fair weather.
